CAUTION

On August 28, 2015, an unknown suspect attempted a robbery at Bank of America located at 902 North Stone Avenue in Tucson, Arizona. The unknown male suspect approached the counter at approximately 10:07 a.m. He told the teller to put everything in a manilla folder he was carrying. The suspect indicated that he had a weapon and lifted the left side of his shirt to show a holster. The teller did not give anything to the suspect and locked the teller station. The suspect then exited the bank and walked north on Stone Avenue to the rear parking lot, then turned and headed northeast through the rear parking lot.

SHOULD BE CONSIDERED ARMED AND DANGEROUS
